Is YOUR organisation a PeakCare Member?

Becoming a Member

Join PeakCare and support the innovative work we do in partnership with, and on behalf of, the child protection sector. Your investment helps us to maintain a robust and impartial voice in seeking continuous improvements to child protection policy, programs and practice that is well-informed by research and the knowledge and experience of our Members, Supporters and other respected stakeholders.

Visit PeakCare's website – peakcare.org.au – to find out how your organisation can apply for membership.

Member benefits

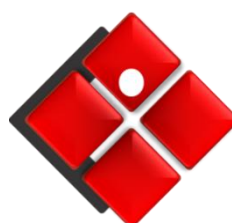

PeakCare Members receive the following benefits:

- Opportunities to participate in roundtable meetings and other consultation processes about topical policy, program or practice issues
- Access to information, research, submissions and reports produced, commissioned and/or distributed by PeakCare
- Discounted (or free) attendance at PeakCare training, symposiums, workshops and other events
- Access to a range of other discounted (or free) services, resources and products periodically made available to PeakCare Members and Supporters
- Free advertising and promotion of job vacancies, events and news via our website, weekly eNews and social media
- Membership of the Child and Family Welfare Association of Australia
- Voting rights at Members' meetings and the Annual General Meeting, and the opportunity to stand for election to the Board (subject to certain conditions)
- Most importantly, the opportunity to play their parts in collectively supporting the important work of PeakCare.

Supporter benefits

Individuals or other entities (such as consultancy services or private businesses) that support PeakCare's policy platform relating to the safety and well-being of children, young people and their families may register as PeakCare Supporters. Supporters enjoy similar benefits to our Members apart from voting rights and eligibility to stand for election to the Board.
