On lowering the age of criminal responsibility and the need for harsher punishments

- The criminals are getting younger. The age should be lowered, not raised
- Do the crime do the time
- Punishment is too weak
- Penalties for crime, that's what they need, not your nanny state garbage
- Before political correctness was a thing (another marxist agenda), we had punishment. If you were 10 and giving lip in the street, or disrespecting somebody, or committing a crime, random strangers would step in to pull you up, and if need be smack you one
- If the police were chasing you after you committed a crime and yelled "Stop, or we will ban you from using netflix for a month" you would get no result. Instead they threaten force with implements of pain, (batons, pepper spray, tazers, bullets and extreme force). Reasoning with an undeveloped mind does not work. Spoiling kids does not work, taking away spoilt kids' privileges does not work
- They understand when they get smacked in the face
- Leave the age as it is, or lower it, or bring in Singapore's rattan cane. Then you'd see crime plummet
- Bring back DEATH PENALTY regardless of age
- What's your point? Who give a fk who called out for what? Should lower the age. Get some discipline back into the youth, stop letting everyone run loose, teach youth that actions have consequences. It's yet another UN attempt to destabilise Australian culture. This post is more left lunacy

On children and parents

- If they are being incarcerated at 10 years, they have already made their career choice
- It is too late at 10, the life-long chip on the shoulder is set in stone and the choice has already been made
- We are talking about lifelong criminals
- A tiger doesn't change its stripes
- Some parents shouldn't have children – clueless
- You are a fool if you think appeasement really works. Some discipline that these 'children' do not receive at home because they have useless parents, would certainly help on straightening them out
- They took discipline out of schools, they took discipline out of homes, children are not stupid they know exactly what they are doing and what they can get away with
- Children are like puppies, the only thing they really understand is pain

- You can talk all day long, until you deliver a smack, then talk is cheap. After said smack, only the threat of another smack is all that's needed. Without this form of discipline in life, children with stupid parents do as they please. Campaign to bring back smacking

On gender re-assignment

- The medical evidence is clear – “children under the age of 14 are undergoing significant growth and development, and their brains are not capable of understanding the consequences of their actions” & yet in this day and age they can choose gender reassignment treatment..... Go figure!
- So the Useless Nations wants us to raise the legal age of responsibility? Do they deem 10 year olds to have no concept of responsibility, but it is OK for them to decide what gender they wish to be, prior to going to school!!!
- If you're so worried about kids not being able to comprehend the repercussions of breaking the law, why aren't you just as worried about kids being able to comprehend gender reassignment treatment.....
- How do you justify your argument when the courts have already ruled that a 10 year old is capable of determining their gender and have gender reassignment?
- Seeing that children these days are responsible enough to decide what gender they want to be when they're still in nappies. If they can make an informed decision on that they are well aware what's right, and what's criminal

On Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children

- Since the indigenous youth make up a disproportionate amount of criminal youth perhaps we should be removing them from their parents at birth, what people could object to in that idea?
- Maybe we need another rescued generation?
- This is not about the foreign rifraf, they are only worried about indigenous
- I agree but we would need several new jails in every state and a heap in Alice
- Don't bring your race garbage here, nobody cares about it and anyone bringing it up is only trying to divide us and destabilise us like the US and UK
- And there's round 2, race division. Fkn woke retards

On the United Nations and the countries that recommended raising the age of criminal responsibility

- Anything the UN want is about controlling us and Marxist utopian nonsense...
- Funny isn't it how the five heads of the UN (China, USA, England, France and Russia) are the five biggest arms dealers in the world. Go figure
- The UN are run by China and they will do anything to shame Australia. Time to pull out

- The United Nations is a full 100% platform for Communism. Leave. Australia should tell those numbskulls to shove it where the sun don't shine
- You are criminals UN. Per head of Australia population our refugee intake is highest in the world. You UN just want to open borders and hate Australia for not signing UN migration pact so you, the UN, at Australia's cost, could bring plane loads of mainly unskilled Africans and Moslems into this country. That's your plan eh UN, destroy the West! One world govt with Mr Gutterman YOUR UN hard core socialist boss, running the world
- The question is why? Why does the UN have countries like Pakistan, Iran, Saudi Arabia, China on their human rights board? The UN has become a joke. You pay them the right amount and you get to have a say
- It was the United Nations who forced our government over the last few decades to take in the most undesirable people on the planet, people whose life revolved around crime from a very early age, people who think that stealing, crime and killing is normal
- They are all making excuses at the expense of the children! That's how they disguise their pedophilia and child trafficking activities!
- The UN is the most corrupt, illegitimate group of criminals the world has ever seen. They are a globally funded organised crime gang with 1st rate political and military wings
- So they (children) can steal cars and weapons to support countries where there is unrest, the UN is an organised crime syndicate running gangs, no thank you
- And what exactly is the stand out about those countries? That's right, they have leftist governments that are destroying their own nations through uncontrolled, unregulated migration and 'feel good' laws that absolve people of responsibility for their actions
- And how many of them are left wing Socialist China loving Governments. Like certain states in Australia
- Half of those countries are shitholes and the other half are lefties loonies destroying their own nations through uncontrolled migration. And you seriously think we should listen to them? How about we listen to the voices of the Australian people on how they want Australia to operate?

On the Australian organisations that support 'raising the age'

- Your list of 'organisations' that support raising the age of criminal responsibility reads like a who's who of scumbags feeding off the public purse

On PeakCare

- Who funds you guys? The CCP (Chinese Communist Party)?
- Why don't you pull your head in. Some of them are murderers and others should not be out in society
- Perhaps you need to be put away for your evil thoughts. Violent reoffenders can't be out in society

- Ahhhh you lefties Marxist driven simpletons, we have noticed an uplift in this group for doing crime because you lot believe they can't be bad, so some moron comes up with the idea raise the age and then the stats will change, get out of your ivory tower and get in the real world which most people live in, and see what it's really like
- With the Saudis, Chinese etc on the UNHRC do you seriously consider them to be objective and un-biased? The world's biggest human rights abusers and you listen to them, shows just how gullible you are
- Facts and evidence hahaha. You must be about 19 and clueless
- You are full of rubbish and 90 percent of people on this site do not support your leftist claims
- You base your assertion that "most people want to see these children responded to in ways that stop them having a lifetime involvement in crime and the criminal justice system" on what? Where is your evidence to support that claim? I tend to believe that once again you are spruiking your own views, making claims that it is supported by the majority even though you have no evidence at all to make this claim
- Maybe you should do some research. And don't pull the opinion card. These are facts of history

On some alternative views

- That doesn't make sense. What would make sense is to have the proper interventions to prevent youth crime in the first place
- Perhaps it is a crime not to be white???
- Australia has become the nasty country
- Australia is a nasty place and getting worse
